YOUTH

Youth is not a time of life;
it is a state of mind;
it is not a matter of rosy cheeks, red lips and supple knees; it is a matter of the will, a quality of the imagination, a vigor of the emotions; it is the freshness of the deepest things of life.

Youth means a temperamental predominance of courage over timidity, of the appetite for adventure over the love of ease. This often exists in a man of 60 or more than a boy of 16. Nobody grows old merely by living a number of years. We grow old by deserting our ideals.

Years may wrinkle the skin, but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul. Worry, fear, self-doubt bows the heart and turns the spirit back to dust.

Whether 60 or 16, there is in every human being's heart the lure of wonder of what's next, and the joy of the game of living. In the center of your heart and mine there is a wireless station; so long as it receives messages of beauty, hope, cheer and courage you are young.

When the aerials are down and your spirit is covered with the snows of cynicism and the ice of pessimism, then you have grown old, even at 16. But so long as your aerials are up, to catch optimism, there is hope--you may die young at 80!
